New & Returning Parents Meeting

We listened to your feedback and are now offering a New & Returning Parents Meeting via Zoom!

Join us as we share information about our upcoming productions, rehearsals, costumes, schedules and what to expect! Being a parent means keep up with lots of schedules and details. The goal of this call is to help you understand our culture and norms and gain a clearer understanding of what to expect as we move into our large production season. We will walk through the Parent Packet.

This will be a video call using the Zoom app, available on all smart phones and computers.
